

PA/PER VIEW ART BOOK FAIR

A new edition of PA/PER VIEW art book fair, co-hosted by MOUSSE (Milan) and MER. Paper Kunsthalle (Gent), is taking place in the theatre foyers of the Carignano and Cavallerizza Reale theatres on 6-8 November in Turin, bringing together more than 25 of the globe's leading artist book publishers, during Italy's most intense contemporary art weekend.

This convergence of exciting initiatives is happening during Turin's busiest contemporary art week, at the time of Artissima 16, the international contemporary art fair. As part of Artissima's activities, an outstanding international performance programme, Accecare l'ascolto / Aveugler l'écoute / Blinding the ears, will take place in several theatres in the city centre and PA/PER VIEW has been invited to occupy the foyers of these strategically situated theatres.

Leave your laptop behind and come and browse amongst the finest titles of these consistent players of the printed word and image.
